Recreation Commission Agreement

The revised recreation agreement suggested by the Board of Supervisors was discussed.

It was moved by Mr. Crawford, seconded by Mr. Sheffey and carried, that the following recreation agreement be approved by the Board of Supervisors and that concurrence by the town councils of the Town of Dublin and Town of Pulaski be requested:

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this _____ day of _____, 1992, by and between the BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF PULASKI COUNTY, VIRGINIA; the COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF PULASKI, VIRGINIA; and the COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF DUBLIN, VIRGINIA;

- W I T N E S S E T H -

THAT WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 15.1-273 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended, any two or more cities, towns or counties may jointly establish a system of recreation and may exercise all the powers given by Sections 15.1-271 and 15.1-272; and,

WHEREAS, the County of Pulaski, the Town of Pulaski and the Town of Dublin, hereinafter called the Cooperating Jurisdictions, have established a Recreation Commission for a trial period of one year, beginning July 1, 1990; and

WHEREAS, the Recreation Commission has coordinated and operated youth sports programs as they have been developed by the individual recreation departments; and

WHEREAS, the Cooperating Jurisdictions desire to extend said Recreation Commission beyond the initial trial year subject to certain terms and conditions;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby agreed that:

1. The Recreation Commission for the Cooperating Jurisdictions shall continue in effect pursuant to the provisions of this agreement. The joint recreation commission shall be named Pulaski-Dublin-Pulaski County-Recreation Commission ("PDPC"). Each presently organized recreation department (Parrott/BelSpring, Hiwassee/Snowville, Riverlawn, Dublin, Draper and Town of Pulaski) shall be allowed to identify itself in conjunction with any PDPC program.

2. The By-laws, as adopted by the Recreation Commission on September 3, 1991, are ratified and shall govern the operation of the commission except as conditioned or amended by the terms of this agreement.
3. PDPC shall be evaluated by the Cooperating Jurisdictions annually not later than June 30, at which time any jurisdiction may withdraw.
4. PDPC shall submit a proposed operating budget and capital improvements budget, if applicable, to the Cooperating Jurisdictions by March 1 of each year for the following fiscal year. Each jurisdiction shall continue to have the right to approve or disapprove any appropriation for the PDPC as a part of its individual budget review process.
5. PDPC shall consist of twelve voting members, appointed by each jurisdiction as follows: Town of Pulaski - four members; Town of Dublin - two members; County of Pulaski - six members. Nominations for appointments shall include nominations by the various recreation departments. Initial appointments by each jurisdiction shall be by staggered terms of one year or two years, with half of the appointees serving one year and half serving two years. Subsequent appointments or reappointments shall be for terms of two years, effective July 1.
6. PDPC shall perform a coordinating function with respect to scheduling and undertaking the activities that are co-sponsored by the various recreation departments.
7. Ownership of supplies and equipment, purchased by or provided to the individual recreation departments through funds allocated by the Cooperating Jurisdictions to PDPC, shall remain with the respective departments; provided, however, that PDPC shall maintain an inventory of said supplies and equipment and may direct that the supplies and equipment be properly stored and maintained. When such supplies and equipment originally provided to a specific individual recreation department are no longer used or needed by that department, PDPC is hereby authorized and directed to establish a procedure for transferring the supplies and/or equipment to any other department which needs them for operation of recreation programs.
8. One objective of PDPC shall be to foster efficient and effective use of the public funds provided to it. The PDPC shall establish a system for the standardization of equipment specifications and for making equipment purchases on a joint basis. PDPC is authorized to suspend and/or withhold funding allocations to those recreation departments that do not participate in the joint purchasing program.
9. Another objective of PDPC shall be the standardization of youth sports programming throughout Pulaski County. PDPC shall implement a coordinated and standardized recreation program which shall provide programming opportunities for various age groups. Such program shall also provide rules and scheduling for all youth sports within the County. PDPC is authorized to suspend and/or withhold funding allocations to those recreation departments that do not participate in the standardized programming and scheduling.
10. Promotional materials, brochures and other written materials shall identify the affected recreation departments and PDPC as joint sponsors of particular programs or events. County-wide programs or events may be advertised as sponsored by PDPC and participating recreation department(s).
11. Pulaski County shall serve as fiscal agent and shall supervise those recreation coordinators engaged by PDPC until such time as Pulaski County may decide to withdraw such service or as this agreement may be subsequently amended. PDPC may compensate Pulaski County for such services with the approval of the cooperating jurisdictions.

12. Except as otherwise provided herein, quarterly or other periodic allocations to the various departments shall be made on an equal and uniform basis without advantage to one department or another. PDPC may

It was moved by Mr. Sheffey, seconded by Mr. Crawford and carried that the following resolution be adopted certifying conformance with the Virginia Freedom of Information Act:
