

The County of Pulaski is seeking nominations for the Joseph Calfee Volunteerism Award

This award may be presented to an individual who has volunteered in the county during the past year. This award is intended for individuals who currently serve on one of the county's boards, committees, or commissions whose volunteer service goes above and beyond simply being a member of the group or organization, but truly give time and talents to the community and county. This award is to recognize a volunteer who has demonstrated the following qualities: consistent positive attitude; willingness to strive for cooperation and harmony between employees, departments, agencies, etc.; and pride in work and community. A certificate will be given to the recipient of this award and will be presented at the Annual Pulaski County Volunteer/Employee.
