

Public Safety Dispatcher

The County of Pulaski is seeking to fill the position of a full-time E-911 dispatcher. Starting salary is anticipated at $27,500 commensurate upon education and experience. Receives and dispatches emergency (911) calls for police, fire and emergency medical services. Job requirements include: shift assignments including mandatory holidays, weekends and overtime, ability to demonstrate keyboarding skills at 35 wpm, ability to pass a thorough background investigation and drug screen, have no felony convictions, past experience or training as an emergency communications officer, dispatcher or similar position preferred.

Interested individuals may apply through your local Virginia Employment Commission or by downloading an application from the County Website www.pulaskicounty.org and submitting it to the following address along with a resume, salary history and an educational transcript:

Pulaski County Administrative Office
Attention: Tammy Safewright, Human Resource Specialist
143 Third St. NW, Suite 1
Pulaski, VA 24301

Position is open until filled.